NO EXTENSION OF MEETING

NEW ORLEANS SEASON WILL BE BROUGHT TO A CLOSE FEBRUARY 16.

General Manager Murphy Takes Strong Ground Against Overdoing the Sport—Mind Runners to Get Another Chance Today.

New Orleans, La., January 17.—The mud runners will again have the full run of the Fair grounds today, when the huge bluffs for the opening race of a well balanced card offered to patrons of the sport by Racing Secretary McLellan. Rain that commenced to fall after the last race Saturday and continued until this afternoon turned a lightning fast track into a course for the slowest of horses. There will be many withdrawals from the different races although the largest fields of the meeting are entered. The wonderful strides that the meeting has made during the past few weeks has resulted in increased patronage, and a substantial increase in the volume of speculation in the palm garden. Many new arrivals were noted about town today. They came chiefly from New York, Chicago and other northern points.

Considerable speculation has been indulged in regarding a possible extension of the racing here beyond the original forty days planned. Manager Joseph A. Murphy yesterday set at rest for all time the question of an extension of the present meeting. He said: "I am unalterably opposed to an extension and there will be no more. It was agreed that the racing would be over on February 16. I will have no place in the policy of the present organization. Commercialized racing has passed from the state of Louisiana forever. I could personally profit by an extension and so could the merchants and every line of business. But we have a big problem to work out and we must make no mistakes. The meeting will end Tuesday evening, February 16, making forty days of racing. We believe we are making good. With the splendid cooperation of Superintendent Reynolds and his subordinates we have been able to keep not only the races but the city clean of touts and undesirable. Bad news travels quickly and word has gone to the four winds of heaven that the death rate for the nefarious schemes of touts and swindlers is higher here at the present time than in any other city in the country."

"We are building on substantial lines. We are trying to demonstrate to the people of Louisiana that racing can be conducted as a sport for ladies and gentlemen and not as a rendezvous for gamblers. We are trying to make good our promises made before the meeting opened that we would conduct a place where the wives and daughters of the citizens could go without an escort in perfect safety. If during the forty days of racing we have demonstrated that all these things are not only possible but not difficult it will be time enough to take up the problem of finance. We shall after this year probably pay a dividend, but for the next few years the bulk of our earnings must go towards the creation of the greatest agricultural, live stock, industrial and mechanical fair that the south has ever known. I feel confident that I have the endorsement of every stockholder in this policy."

THE JOCKEY CLUB AND ITS FUNCTIONS.

New York, January 17.—The election of Spalding Lewis Jenkins, president of the Maryland Jockey Club, to fill one of the four vacancies in the membership of the Jockey Club resulting from the resignation of August Belmont, Jr., and the deaths of John G. Follansbee, James B. Haggis and William M. Manly, leaves three vacancies still to be filled. The members of the Jockey Club are expected to meet to fill the vacancies on the following:

August Belmont, Perry Belmont, C. K. G. Billings, Francis C. Bishop, Oden Mills Bishop, Capt. Edward B. Cassatt, William Astor Chandler, Alexander Smith Coleman, John E. Fowling, Herman E. Buryer, Philip J. Dwyer, George Peabody Frost, William C. Hustis, William S. Fanshawe, Robert L. Gerry, Frank Gray Griswold, Dr. James O. Green, Francis R. Hitchcock, Thomas Hitchcock, Samuel S. Howland, C. Oliver Leffell, Spalding Lewis Jenkins, Foxhall P. Knapp, Harry Knapp, Knapp Knapp, Lawrence, Pierre Lorillard, Price McKim, Clarence H. Mackay, Andrew Miller, Edwin D. Morgan, Alfred Hennen Morris, Henry T. Oxnard, I. M. Parr, Jr., Schuyler L. Parsons, Ralph J. Preston, Samuel Ross, Colonel Jacob Ruppert, Jr., John Sanford, John Steward, Jr., Frank K. Sturgis, Lewis S. Thompson, William P. Thompson, William K. Vanderhill, George Peabody Wetmore, Harry Payne Whitney Joseph E. Widener and Richard T. Wilson. August Belmont is chairman, or president, Mr. Sturgis vice-chairman and Mr. Knapp secretary and treasurer. The stewards are Messrs. August Belmont, F. R. Hitchcock, Knapp, Miller, Parsons, Sanford and Sturgis. To them is entrusted practically the whole management of the organization in its direction and they have the power to grant and withdraw licenses to tracks, trainers and jockeys; to appoint starters, judges, handicappers and other racing officials; hear cases on appeal; rule off any person concerned in fraudulent practices and supervise the registration of horses. In brief, they can do almost anything except change the rules of racing and elect new members and officers.

The Jockey Club is incorporated under the laws of New York and it has a quasi-judicial function, in that the statutes of the state recognize its rules by granting the state racing commission to license only such running meetings as are subject to its regulations. Two of the three members of the racing commission are stewards of the Jockey Club, so that the two bodies are and always have been to all intents and purposes identical.

Organized in 1894, the Jockey Club succeeded the old Board of Control in the supervision of racing on eastern tracks. The Board of Control, as old time turfmen will remember, was the body that had one of its members assigned to ride off Arthur Rogers of the Tribune and Tracy Bronson of the Times for writing objectionable criticisms of the races at Monmouth Park. The newspapers stood by their reporters, the board broke up its officers and a war was suddenly started which closed every race track in New York and so amended the constitution that racing and trotting in this state have ever since been subjected to all sorts of handicaps and at times almost wiped out.

It was after the repeal of the Ives law that the late James R. Keene, Francis Trevelyan and other racing enthusiasts held a meeting at the Hoffman House and started the movement which resulted in the formation of the Jockey Club. A second meeting took place without any definite action resulting and then Mr. Belmont and others stepped in and put the project through. Mr. Belmont has been chairman of the Jockey Club ever since it was organized, more than twenty years ago.

Soon after it assumed control of racing, the Jockey Club purchased from Col. Saunders of Bruce the American Stud Book, of which he had compiled and published six volumes. Four volumes have since been added to the series and another will go to press in a few weeks, bringing the pedigree of American race horses up to date. The registry bureau is one of the important adjuncts of the Jockey Club office, containing as it does, a detailed description and a

THIRTY LEADING MONEY-WINNING FIVE-YEAR-OLDS OF 1914

To Broomstick belongs the honor of having sired the two chief money-winning five-year-olds of 1914 in R. J. Mackenzie's excellent race horse, Buckhorn, and Weber & Ward's speedy mare, Winning Witch. In the list of thirty best winners of that age he has another representative in the gelding Bonanza, all of which is evidence that his stock wears well. In fact, hardheaded is a characteristic of the Bramble branch of Bonnie Scotland's family, a trait to be expected when it is well bred. Broomstick was one of the greatest cup winners and stayers of American turf history. Next to Buckhorn and Winning Witch in money won were Tactics, Panther, Wilhite and Elwah in the order of their naming, but Star Jasmine, Dorothy Dean, Republican and Randolph, which did not win so much money, were all better race horses than any of the four. The records in racing of the thirty chief winning five-year-olds of the year were:

DERBY WINNERS OF THE PAST YEAR

Eight Derbys were run in North America last year. The most valuable of the lot was the International Derby, run over the turf track of the Jockey Club at Montreal, Que., a $20,000 guaranteed event that brought the organization sponsoring it into great prominence at the very outset of its entry into the sport. It was the good fortune of John W. Schorr to win this valuable race with David Craig, whose state of the proceeds amounted to $15,000. Next in point of value came the Kentucky Derby, the winning of which has always been keenly sought by American turfmen because of the wealth of sentiment which this race has been. The purse value of this race was increased to a degree more in keeping with its traditional importance. The following tabulation embraces a summary of all the Derby races of 1914:

HORSES THAT RACED SUCCESSFULLY FOR F. J. COLEMAN

Late in the year Tactics had trained off and was not of much account for racing purposes, but early in the 1914 campaign he got into form and at the Ontario Jockey Club's spring meeting at Woodbine Park won the Minto Selling Stakes and the King Edward Hotel Handicap. These two important successes he supplemented with another when he captured the Earl Grey Cup at the September meeting over the Race Course track at Montreal. These, with two purse races and considerable place money, served to make him F. J. Coleman's chief money earner and quite a good one. Good Day also won well for him '24, while the three-year-old Smeeler, Water Lady and Coors were his most successful money gatherers, the three winning considerably more than half of his total for the year. The record of the stable was:

USEFUL PLATERS IN E. MCBRIDE'S STABLE OF 1914

The fact that E. McBride increased his stable earnings from a total of $6,100 in 1913 to the much more pleasing sum of $15,325 last year is its own story of a more than ordinarily prosperous turf campaign. He had nothing but selling platers in his stable, but they were placed with such good judgment that seven of his eight in service won collectively thirty-five races, Coors being the only one that failed to win. The three-year-olds Smeeler, Water Lady and Coors were his most successful money gatherers, the three winning considerably more than half of his total for the year. The record of the stable was:

record of the breeding of every thoroughbred race horse in the United States and Canada. About two thousand foals are now registered annually.

In connection with its registry bureau, the Jockey Club has acquired the best library in existence pertaining to racing in all parts of the world. Its English racing calendar goes back to 1769. Its files of the old Spirit of the Times, in which alone the history of early American racing is preserved, are among the most nearly complete now known. Probably no perfect file of this earliest weekly sporting periodical is in existence. Stud books and racing calendars from Australia, India, the Argentine Republic and every other country where the British race horse is favored, enable the breeders and turfmen to trace the pedigree or the performance of every running horse of note in the world.

Besides this unrivaled collection of books and periodicals, the Jockey Club has in its library a notable collection of portraits of early American race horses. The paintings are mostly by E. Troye, whose best work compares favorably with that of any painter of horse portraits who has lived. They include portraits of American Eclipse, Lexington and many other old-time celebrities of turf and stud.

The Jockey Club is supported by fees and fines, all of which must be paid into the treasury of the central organization by the racing associations which collect them. With this fund the club maintains its suite of offices, with a corps of experts in charge of the stud book, the racing calendar and various other matters in hand. It has also appropriated considerable sums in the last few years for the relief of ill and needy trainers and jockeys of good reputation.

The working force of the Jockey Club is headed by Algonzo Baingfield, son of the late Maj. F. A. Baingfield, and nominally assistant secretary and treasurer. W. H. Rowe is the registrar in charge of the stud book, and H. A. Buck, son of L. A. Buck, who succeeded George Wilkes as editor of the Spirit of the Times, is the editor of the monthly Racing Calendar.

NOTED TURF WRITER CRITICALLY ILL.

Hamilton Bushey, one of the oldest of American turf writers, is critically ill at the home of his daughter, May T. A. Bushey of South Vietnam, near Springfield, O. Mr. Bushey attended the meeting of stewards of the Grand Circuit at Detroit last Tuesday and contracted pneumonia. He is seventy-five years old.

MAKING HIT WITH CUBANS

RACING IN A FAIR WAY TO BECOME POPULAR PASTIME AT HAVANA.

Crowd of Seven Thousand, Including Elite of City, in Attendance at Oriental Park on Sunday—H. G. Bedwell Wins Half the Card.

Havana, Cuba, January 17.—It certainly looks as if racing is destined to become a popular pastime in Cuba. Today saw a crowd of over 7,000 persons in attendance at Oriental Park. The big gathering included the leaders of Havana society and business. Manager Brown had completed ten more boxes for the occasion and there are now 80 of them besides those in connection with the clubhouse. All were occupied today. The utmost enthusiasm prevailed and it was the general opinion that the sport is taking a wonderful hold.

The track showed considerable improvement today, but was still heavy, although it is now drying out so fast that a day or two will see it in its normal condition. The feature of the racing was the success of the H. G. Bedwell stable. Mr. Bedwell sent three winners to the post in Sunny Boy, Dixie and Centauri. All were ridden by Jockey Taplin. Centauri was a short-priced favorite for his race, but liberal prices were obtainable against the other two. Archie Zimmerman's Stars and Stripes was the only other successful favorite. W. Gargan, Sr., won the opening dash with Masala, against whose chances the bookmakers laid 15 to 1. Napier, from the Bedrick stable, accounted for the final race of the day.

There will be racing at Oriental Park on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday this week. After this week racing will go on every day without a break to the end of the meeting.

P. T. CHINN IS SUSPENDED AT JUAREZ.

Prominent Kentuckians Involved in Ruling Issued at Mexican Course Pending Investigation.

El Paso, Tex., January 17.—A large crowd visited the Juarez track and enjoyed the racing this afternoon. A heavy snowstorm visited this section last night, but a warm sun melted the snow rapidly and the track was as fast as usual during the afternoon. J. W. Goldblatt's Othello, running to his best form, set a terrific pace all the way and easily won the Rio Grande Selling Stakes from good opposition. Pay Streak was backed into favoritism for the race, but was never seriously in the hunt and finished next to last, beating only Florence Roberts, another of the choices that ran dismally. Bermudian and Lackrose were the placed horses behind Othello. Ducky Davis, winner of the opening dash, and Edmond Adams, in the fifth, were the successful favorites. Inez, favorite for the second race, lost by a nose to Lukemane after setting all the pace. Brookfield went to the post first choice for the seven-eighths of a mile handicap, that was the secondary feature of the card, but he showed keen early speed, but injury and Belle of Bryn Mawr both passed him in the stretch and the former won with ease off by himself.

Edmond Adams winning margin in the fifth was only a head over Bermudian. Kelsott passed him, but backed to win the closing dash and came with a rush at the end only to be beaten by a small margin by Vireo, which had made practically all the pace.

The stewards this afternoon gave out the following ruling: "Upon charges made by Jockey L. Hartwell, and corroborated by Jockey J. Collins, P. T. Chinn, owner and trainer, C. H. Knodelkamp, owner, and Jockey J. Collins are suspended by the stewards pending further investigation. The horses affected by the ruling are Tony Maid, owned by Mr. Knodelkamp, and Dorothy Perkins, Miss Chances, Frank Patterson, Rose Juliette and a two-year-old by Marta Santa-Francesca.

GENERAL NEWS NOTES OF THE DAY.

The situation in north Poland is reported to be developing rapidly. The Russian raiding forces, reported to be within forty miles of the strong German fortress of Thorn, are expected to effect a junction with the Russian main army which has been operating against the east Prussian positions. In east Prussia the Russians appear to have turned the German fortress of Boyen, which guards the Mazurian lakes to the north. This apparently clears the way for the Russians to sweep into east Prussia by the northern route, while a second Russian army is striking from the Mlava district. Boyen is forty-five miles west of the east Prussian frontier and if the report that it has been passed is true, it shows a marked advance for the Russians in that territory. These developments, it is believed, at Petrograd, will result in Field Marshal von Hindenburg, the German commander-in-chief, being compelled to withdraw his forces from before Warsaw. The fighting in Hungary promises to be the hardest recorded in the eastern campaign. It is admitted that the Russians have forced the Austrians back and that the former are on the plains of the Magyar kingdom. Large bodies of German troops, including one first line corps, are now arriving in northern Hungary to assist the Austrians in repelling the Russian advance and freeing Bukovina and Transylvania from the danger of the Roumanians joining with the czar's troops in their dash towards Budapest.

The destruction caused by the Italian earthquake is fully as great as has been feared. Complete reports of the damage done and the lives snuffed out from all but one or two small towns show that the casualties will reach nearly 40,000 and that the number of injured probably will exceed 50,000. Flood and famine have added to the terrible disaster, which brought with it fire and pestilence. Many of the small villages that suffered from the initial quake are now flooded as the result of the overflowing of mountain creeks diverted from their regular course by the earth disturbance.

The Turkish official statement issued in Constantinople announces that the French submarine Samir, while trying to enter the Dardanelles, was sunk by Turkish artillery. Part of the submarine's crew was rescued.

A report has been received at Rome that the Italian torpedo gunboat Contit has been badly damaged while cruising in the Adriatic. No details were given regarding the accident.

A dispatch from Geneva says that Roumanian students in Swiss universities received orders by telegraph to return home on account of mobilization of the Roumanian army.

Heavy cannonading was heard on the Swiss frontier near Basel and a red glare in the sky at night indicated that villages and farm houses were burning.

Nine British, French and Belgian aviators dropped bombs on the railroad station and barracks at Ostend, causing considerable damage.

The city of Antwerp has paid the German levy of $100,000 which was due Saturday.

LEADING TWO-YEAR-OLDS SINCE 1870.

Harry Payne Whitney's unbeaten filly Regret, in leading as the leading money-winning two-year-old of 1914, placed a tribute to her credit than the amount by which Old Rosebud attained similar distinction the previous year. Since 1910, which was the last year of high values for juvenile races on the New York tracks, the showing in earnings of the leader has fallen far short of those of the preceding twenty-five years.
The record of the winners of the chief American two-year-olds of each year since Sensation first touched the $20,000 mark in 1870, is as follows:
